

Animal Use Statistics

AgResearch Group is committed to openness around animal research activities. As part of this we are making publicly available the number of animals and the impact grade of the research activities on the animals. All of the research was approved by the AgResearch Animal Ethics Committee that monitors and follows up on the outcomes of the research.

